The Light That Blinds

Shadows Fall

A crack forms in the foundation
Well fault line through your defenses
Illuminating the essence
Once clouded by the mythStore bought conformity
Force-fed duality
I warp realityThe comfort that you will find
As you remain hidden
The light betrays
Casting your true self away
You'll remain blind
As vanity possesses me
I am floating further away
Gripped by the belief in empty words
Driven by the need to proveStore bought conformity
Force-fed duality
I warp realityThe comfort that you will find
As you remain hidden
The light betrays
Casting your true self away
You'll remain blindThe shell may wither
But the fire burns eternal
The shell may wither
But the fire burns wild
You hide behind, cower
The light that blinds, blindsThe comfort that you will find
As you remain hidden
The light betrays
Casting your true self away
You'll remain blindWe'll never find what burns inside
You'll remain blind behind the light
