The Enemy

Memphis May Fire

I've seen your work, I'm not impressed.
Devoted to your emptiness.
You get so close to me, I know you're reaching for my throat.
I feel you breathing down my neck.
I hate this feeling in my chest.
Bring your destruction but you'll never crush my soul.
Who do you think you are?
You'll never shake the ground that I stand on!
You were defeated before you began, deceiving the world with lies that you hold inside the cold grip of your hand.
You always kick me when I'm down, but cheap shots can't keep me on the ground.
I'll keep my head high with my fists up until the final round. Did you really think I'd fall for this?
You lie, you cheat, you steal, you make me sick!
You are the enemy we're up against and we will bring you to your knees!
You were defeated before you began, deceiving the world with lies that you hold inside the cold grip of your hand.
You are the poison, but I have the cure.
So I'll stand tall until the final battle finally takes you off your throne.
You've stolen hope from everyone I know.
You speak evil from your lips.
You won't get away with this.
I've seen the last of your story.
I know how this all ends. We've been victorious from the beginning!
We've been victorious!
We've been victorious from the beginning!
You were defeated before you began, deceiving the world with lies that you hold inside the cold grip of your hand.
You are the poison, but I have the cure.
So I'll stand tall until the final battle finally takes you off your throne.
