Richard

Billy Bragg

Richard belongs to Jayne
And Jayne belongs to yesterday
How can I go on
When every alpha particle hides a neon nucleusNeil belongs to love
And love belongs to no man
How can he go on
When no one answers the adverts in his mind?There will be parties, there will be fun
There will be prizes for everyone
And hey, hey, hey, here comes RichardThere will be ladies dressed in lace
I just want to see her face
When hey, hey, hey, here comes Richard
You helped me build this bed
But you won't help me sleep in it
When I fall between you and the wall
Our Titanic love affair sails on the morning tideOur Titanic love affair sails on the morning tide
Our Titanic love affair sails on the morning tideThere will be parties, there will be fun
There will be prizes for everyone
And hey, hey, hey, here comes RichardThere will be ladies dressed in lace
I just want to see her face
When hey, hey, hey, here comes RichardI really love your style
Did you read it in the 'Look and Learn?'
How long can we go on? Do you think I only love you
Because you sleep with other boys
There will be parties, there will be fun
There will be prizes for everyone
And hey, hey, hey, here comes RichardThere will be ladies dressed in lace
I just want to see her pretty face
When hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey
Hey, hey, hey, here comes RichardHey, here comes Richard
Hey, here comes Richard
Hey, here comes Richard
