Vulnerable

Selena Gomez

If I gave you every piece of me, I know that you could drop it
Give you the chance, I know that you could take advantage once you got it
If I open up my heart to you, I know that you could lock it
Throw away the key and keep it there forever in your pocketIf I gave the opportunity to you, then would you blow it?
If I was the greatest thing that happened to you, would you know it?
If my love was like a flower, would you plant it, would you grow it?
I might give you all my body, are you strong enough to hold it?If I show you all my demons
And we dive into the deep end
Would we crash and burn like every time before?
I would tell you all my secrets
Wrap your arms around my weakness
If the only other option's letting go
I'll stay vulnerable, yeah
I'll stay vulnerable, yeah
I'll stay vulnerableIf I hand you my emotion, would you even want to take it?
If I give you all my trust now, would you fumble it and break it?
If I let you cross my finish line, then would you wanna make it?
I think I'm ready, won't you come and flip the switch and activate it?If I show you all my demons
And we dive into the deep end
Would we crash and burn like every time before?
I would tell you all my secrets
Wrap your arms around my weakness
If the only other option's letting goI'll stay vulnerable, yeah
I'll stay vulnerable, yeah
I'll stay vulnerable
If I show you all my demons
And we dive into the deep end
Would we crash and burn like every time before?
I would tell you all my secrets
Wrap your arms around my weakness
If the only other option's letting goI'll stay vulnerable, yeah
I'll stay vulnerable, yeahIf I show you all my demons
And we dive into the deep end
Would we crash and burn like every time before? (I'll stay vulnerable)
I would tell you all my secrets
Wrap your arms around my weakness
If the only other option's letting go(I'll stay vulnerable, yeah)
