GASHI

Em evol ouy yas
Uoy yas, uoy yas
Em evol ouy yas
Uoy yas, uoy yas
Say you, say you
Say you love me
Say you, say you
Say you love meYou watch me slip and fuck it all up
I've given you up all of my love
Show me what is under your glove
You know I ain't givin' it up
How could you waste my time?
Go and take what's mine
And my smile
And when you see that I cried
I ain't doin' her right
I ain't doin' her right
I'm tryin', but I can't keep going
Say you, say you, say you love me
I just pray that I never find somebody like me
Say you, say you, say you love me
'Cause right now, I don't even like me
Say you, say you, say you love me
How would you like to come and live my life?
Say you, say you, say you love me
How would you like to see me blow my mind?
How would you like to come and live my life?
How would you like to see me blow my mind?
You got me sick and fallin' apart
I've given up, I'm takin' these drugs
Show me someone that I can trust
I'm all alone, no one gives a fuck
You got me slippin' away
I've been just driftin' away
I'm about to throw it away
Told you that I'm goin' away
I'm blowin' up your line, please pick up the call
Right before I die, I've been on the phone
Tryna calm my mom, no, it's not your fault
I can't stop my mind
It's runnin' and runnin', please go awaySay you, say you, say you love me
I just pray that I never find somebody like me

Say you, say you, say you love me
'Cause right now, I don't even like me
Say you, say you, say you love me
How would you like to come and live my life?
Say you, say you, say you love me
How would you like to see me blow my mind?
How would you like to come and live my life?
How would you like to see me blow my mind?Say you, say you, say you love me
Love it when I'm ridin' with my choppa
Got my Glock on me, they call me true shotta
I'm whippin' up the dope, we rollin' smoke up in the Montage
Ain't no worries, my tata
I'll aim it at your brain, turn that shit into pasta
Say you, say you, say you love me
I heard that lil' boy want to be up a rockstar
Say you, say you, say you love me
Everybody wanna be famous
Until they meet all the haters
Do you really wanna be famous?
I swear you gon' end up brainless, like bang bang
How would you like to come live my life?
How would you like to see me blow my mind?
Say you, say you, say you love me
