Stay (Frank Pole Remix) [feat. Dia Frampton]

tyDi

I know you've been kicked around
Searching for some solid ground
They up and left so out of the blue
But I will stay by youLet me put your sweater on
We headed out to see the dawn
I know they turned their back on you
But I will see this through'Cause I'm gonna stay
I'm gonna chase your hell away
I'm gonna stay
I'm gonna keep your fears away, away
Let's take a trip to Tennessee
Find a spot by a lazy tree
Tell me all about when you were young
And how you got it wrongBut I'm gonna stay
I'm gonna chase your hell away
I'm gonna stay
I'm gonna keep your fears awayWhen the night settles in
And the bottle is gone
When you need someone to call on
I will be the one
That's gonna stay
I'm gonna chase your hell away
Yeah, I'm gonna stay
I'm gonna chase your hell away
I'm gonna stay
I'm gonna keep your fears away
