frnkiero and the cellabration

i'm not sure what they said,
but if it's true i'll bet
it's just one more thing i'll regret.
i hate my weaknesses, they made me who i am.
"yea, it's cool i'll be ok.",
as i felt your pain wash over me.
i dry your eyes and hide my shakes,
cause i hate the look that's on your face.
these things inside my head,
they never make much sense,
so i wouldn't hold my breath.
i hope i die before they save my soul.
"yea, it's cool i'll be ok.",
as i felt your pain wash over me.
i dry your eyes and hide my shakes,
cause i hate the look that's on your face.
don't hang up because i don't have anyone left here.
don't give up, don't hang on to anything i've said.
i hate my weaknesses,
they made me who i am.
it makes no difference,
i'm insignificant.
("yea, it's cool i'll be ok.",
as i felt your pain wash over me.
i dry your eyes and hide my shakes,
cause i hate the look that's on your face.)
"yea, it's cool i'll be ok.",
as i felt your pain wash over me.
i dry your eyes and hide my shakes,
cause i hate the look that's on your face.
this is not the end for us.
