

Kaleidoscope

Procol Harum

Jostle, hassle, elbow bustle in a swirling rainbow tussle Caught and frozen, broken sheen now unites for one brief sceneLonely in the dark I grope the key's in my kaleidoscopeConfused faces change their places take up stances, exchange glances Lost in multicoloured hues there is no whole which I can chooseLonely in the dark I grope the key's in my kaleidoscopeIn one face, one moment's fusion realize the new illusion Clutching fingers break the puzzle
jostle, hassle, elbow bustle Still out in the dark I grope the key's in my kaleidoscope
