Avantasia

Avantasia

Open my eyes
and see my bleeding wounded hands
Feeling the pain too hard to stand, to stand Caught in the 'now and here'
while they are on the way.
Hiding imagination, leading us astray
Use your mind!You will leave the flesh dimensions behind
Sanity can be the toll
leading to the core of your soul
We are the power inside
We bring you fantasy
We are the kingdom of light and dreams
Gnosis and life: Avantasia!
We are the power inside
We bring you fantasy.
We are the kingdom of light and dreams
Gnosis and life: Avantasia!
Avantasia
Walking along the icy gallery of pain
Tell me now: What can keep the flame alive?
Lack of imagination - raising up the towerWhere they hold our souls
To take away the power
Use your mind!
You will leave your flesh dimensions behind.
Sanity can be the toll
leading to the core of your soul.
We are the power inside
We bring you fantasy
We are the kingdom of light and dreams
Gnosis and life: Avantasia!We are the power inside
We bring you fantasy.
We are the kingdom of light and dreams
Gnosis and life: Avantasia!
We are the power inside
We bring you fantasy.
We are the kingdom of light and dreams
Gnosis and life: Avantasia!
