Big Time Nashville Star (feat. Esmé Patterson)

Shakey Graves

You might wander far,
be a big time Nashville star.
Still it never hurts,
even when you do your worst.Well, I'm a wheel that's always turning, oh.
Oh, I always start out where I end.
And, me, I'm like a fire that's always burning.
But, oh, how time flies right by the wayside.You might wander far,
be a big time Nashville star.
Still it never hurts,
even when you do your worst.
I was never one to beg or borrow.
Yeah, I'm just trying to get a rise.
And we would always trade our safe for sorrow.
Well, I guess we're just a sign of the times.But, oh, how life goes right out the windows.You might kiss me sweet or call my name out while you cheat.
Still it never hurts
yeah, even when you do your worst.Bow, boy, never kneel
Now, by the time that I can't steal
Still it never hurts
even when you do
even when you do
oh, even when you do
your worst.
You might wander far,
be a big time Nashville star.
Still it never hurts,
even when you do your worst.
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://www.1songlyrics.com/