Dancing in the Dark (feat. Ameerah)

Schiller

I don't hurt before, yeah I don't hurt bad never been that good in love so now I cover my heart and I dance alonethere you walk in somehow the music changes it gets so loud under the blights quietly to got me in overthrown
you got me going crazy
I thought I had this love game down I am standing here mistakin' over you crushing into deep oh I don't mind if I should fall apart as long as you're here with me dancing in the darkand now I am letting go no I don't mind if I should fall apart
dancing in the dark how did i, I loose myself in your eyes just one minute in your world got me thinking about the unthinkable
you got me going crazy
I thought I had this love game down
I am standing here mistakin' over you still I think of you 'cause I am letting go
dancing in the darkand now I am letting go
dancing in the darkif I should fall apart if love should break your heart I'll be alright and you will too if I should fall apart
if love should break your heart just keep dancing in the dark'cause I am letting go

dancing in the darkand now I am letting go
dancing in the dark
