

Sweet Isabel

Enrique Iglesias

The autumn leaves are falling
Like tears from her eyes
There's no use in me calling
The pain you felt inside And I know you're feeling like
You should run away, run away
And I know you're wandering
Oh why you should stay, why you should stay Oh sweet sweet Isabel
Just believe it will be alright
Sweet sweet Isabel
No, you don't have to leave tonight
You feel that change is coming
But you were so afraid inside
I know your heart's been broken
Oh way too many times And I know you're feeling
Like you should run away, run away Oh sweet sweet Isabel
Just believe it will be alright
Sweet sweet Isabel
No you don't have to leave tonight
(You don't have to leave tonight)
You don't have to leave tonight No, you don't Sweet sweet Isabel
Just believe it will be alright
Sweet sweet Isabel
No you don't have to leave tonight
The autumn leaves are falling
Like tears from her eyes
There's no use in me calling
The pain you felt inside
