Rather Be with You

Sinead Harnett

I was halfway up on the wings of a fantasy
Looking out for love, didn't know what was good for meI stay out every night
And live it up, live it up, live it up, live it up now baby
But nothing feels the sameI'd rather be with you
Then I look into his eyes and I realize
I'd rather be with you
Though I try to trick myself, there's nobody else
I'd rather be with you
I'd rather be with youFillings days with distractions, only a waste of time
No one can compare, only you made me come alive
You're the one I need
So give it up, give it up, give it up now baby
You only have to sayI'd rather be with you
Then I look into his eyes and I realize
I'd rather be with you
Though I try to trick myself, there's nobody else
I'd rather be with you
I'd rather be with youNo more fighting, need to get your love
I know you're trouble, but you're my number one
And I'm gonna leave it all behind
Cause I'd rather be with you
I'd rather be with you
Then I look into his eyes and I realize
I'd rather be with you
Though I try to trick myself...
I'd rather be with you
Then I look into his eyes and I realize
I'd rather be with you
Though I try to trick myself, there's nobody else
I'd rather be with you
I'd rather be with youAnd I realize, and I realize...
