Sunflowers

Everclear

I know where you go
When you want to fall
Why do you want to be broken?I know where you go
When you want to fall
Yes, your friends
They tell me everythingYes, I know where you go
Yes, I know what you do
Yes, I know the awful things you say
And who you say them toYes, I know where you go
Yes, I know what you doI know how you feel
You get crazy inside
They say it runs in the family
I know just how you feel
When you get crazy inside
Your mom she said
That you are just like meI can see it in your eyes
I can see your shaky handsYes, I think you think I'm stupid
You don't think I understand
Yes, I see you and I see myself
When I was a younger manWhen you were a child
You were happy and free
You were my reason to live
I would die when you smiled at meI can still see you
I remember you painting
Sunflowers in your room
I know where you go
When you want to fall
Hey don't you want to be happy? YeahI know where you go
When you want to fall
Your useless friends
They tell me everything, everythingI see you run around in circles
I see you digging your own hole
I see you fight the fights
You just can't winI see you losing self-control
What it does to me
Deep down inside
I hope you will never knowWhen you were a child
You were happy and free
You were my reason to live
I would die when you smiled at meI can still see you
Painting flowers on the wall
I remember you happy

I remember it allWhen you were a child
You were happy and free
You were my reason to live
I would die when you smiled at meI can still see you
Sunflowers in your roomAll I want to remember
Pretty pictures on the wall
I remember it allAll I want to remember
