Anxious

Austin Mahone

What's up what's up what's up
Usually I'm cool enough but Usually I don't see someone
That look like they could be the one, one
Don't wanna be forward
Don't wanna create an awkward moment
But you got me frozen
Can't get my feet to do what I told them
Baby, your body makes me wanna cut loose
But when I try, I analyze a little too much
Baby, cause your body makes me wanna tell the truth
So by the way
I can't help it I want you more with every innocent touch
The more I say we're just friends, the more I wanna explode
Every time we're alone, I try to speak but I choke
Can't say it when it's just us 'cause you make me so anxious
Can't wait, can't wait, I'm...
Can't wait, can't waitMy mind's already rolling takin' off your clothing (yeah)
Did I say that out loud, say that out loud, I'm sorry
Don't wanna be forward, don't wanna create an awkward moment
But you got me frozen, can't get my feet to do what I told 'em
Baby, your body makes me wanna tell the truth (damn)
So by the way
I can't help it I want you more with every innocent touch
The more I say we're just friends, the more I wanna explode
Every time we're alone, I try to speak but I choke
Can't say it when it's just us cause you make me so anxious
Can't wait, can't wait, I'm...
Can't wait, can't wait, no patience
Can't wait, can't wait, I'm...
Can't wait, can't wait, no patienceCan't help it I want you more with every innocent touch
The more I say we're just friends, the more I wanna explode
Every time we're alone, I try to speak but I choke
Can't say it when it's just us 'cause you make me so anxious
Can't wait, can't wait, I'm...
Can't wait, can't wait, no patience
Can't wait, can't wait, I'm...
Can't wait, can't wait, no patience
