Body Count (feat. Normani & Kehlani)

Jessie Reyez

[Intro]
Yeah[Verse 1]
You don't gotta tell me 'bout your body count
I don't gotta know your ex's name
'Cause if it just so happens that you turn around and ask me
I think you might feel some type of way
I dodge dick on the daily, yeah
I know it's funny, but it's true
And I bought this Mercedes all by myself
Got the papers to prove[Chorus]
We don't need no one, yo', tryna take our freedom, yo'
Time won't let you stay young
So, we don't care what they say
We gon' love who we wanna love
[Post-Chorus]
Love, yo', love, yo', love
We gon' love who we wanna love
Love, yo', love, yo'
We don't care what they say
We gon' love who we wanna love[Verse 2]
You don't gotta tell me 'bout your body count (no, no, no)
Baby, I ain't gonna post you on my page (haha)
'Cause odds are that goodbyes are cumming soon
So, maybe you should put a rubber on your heart before it breaks
'Cause all your friends want my baby (yup)
I know it's funny, but it's true (yeah)
But some nights I would rather make love to myself
Singing to my own damn tune
[Chorus]
We don't need no one tryna take our freedom
Time won't let you stay young
So, we don't care what they say
We gon' love who we wanna love[Post-Chorus]
Love, yo', love, yo', love
We gon' love who we wanna love
Love, yo', love, yo'
We don't care what they say
We gon' love who we wanna love[Outro]
I saw my ex and then I swerved, sue me
Miss me with that bullshit for the birds, sue me
I know they did me dirty while I still had the title
But I don't hold any anger, I just swerve

Hallelujah
Yeah, yeah
Hallelujah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
That's what I said to them (yeah)
