Computer Luv (feat. Steve Lacy)

Ravyn Lenae

I'm on the line right now
I need your time right now
I can't sleep tight without
Your lips on mine somehowWhen will I meet you
I'm down to see you
I wanna see you right now
It's been a year now
I shed a tear down
My face dripping, drown my feelings
Into the smoke tanks
I wonder what is next?
Will I catch real feelings for ya
Or could this be pointless
I should've avoided this
But what if this real
I'm on the line right now
Is our time running out?
Into different worlds
Fly out, come hold me downWhen will I meet you
I'm down to see you
I wanna see you right now
It's been a year now
I shed a tear down
My face dripping drown my feelings
Into the smoke tanks
I wonder what is next?
Will I catch real feelings for ya
Or could this be pointless
I should've avoided this
But what if this real
Don't care what nobody say
A thousand miles in the way
You pick the time and the day
I got it, I got it
You knew it right from the start
Computer love is not smart
Don't lose it, don't break my heart
Don't break my heartWhen will I meet you
I'm down to see you
I wanna see you right now
It's been a year now
I shed a tear down

My face dripping drown my feelings
Into the smoke tanks
I wonder what is next?
Will I catch real feelings for ya
Or could this be pointless
I should've avoided this
But what if this realDon't fade away, my love
Inside the space, my love
One click away from you
Don't fade away
Ah, hello Ravyn. I hope you get this message.
I hope to see you soon.
It's really cold down here, in London.
Been following you for about three years now
I really wanna see you.
I hope your tour comes soon
