Icarus Lives! (Zedd Remix)

Periphery

Believe in memories to resurrect meBesieged by falling dreams
Hold them tightly
Adorn my wings to thee, and use them nightlyI'm neither angel nor a demon spawn
Though some will call me god
Gravity is just a law I've wroughtHear temptation take the sky for all to see
Sheer elation to write in history
I'm neither angel nor a demon spawn
Though some will call me god
Gravity is just a feeble plotWhen I said I'd never kneel again
What I really meant
Was (fucking) pull the pin because time is spent
Unite with ravens on their shadow flights
As my nocturnal right
Gravity is just a mortal's viceWhen I said I'd never feel or see
Love and sight are last resorts for me
