Could Be Worse

Bleu

You had us all fooled for a little while
With your silly little crooked LA smile
But she caught on just a little too late
You had practically moved in by the second date
But who could really blame yaEverybody's guilty of that kinda thing sometimes
Maybe you'll be smarter if you get a second tryIt could be worse, could be better
We could hold ya to the letter
We could keep ya to your word
It could be worse, could be better
Yeah ya thought ya could forget her
For what it's worth, take my word
It could be worse
I guess you had it all figured out
Oh but you underestimated the power of doubt
And when I got my chance I didn't hold back
I told her what I thought of your little escapades and Then I helped her pack
But who could really blame meEverybody's guilty of that kinda thing sometimes
Maybe you'll be smarter if you get a second tryIt could be worse, could be better
We could hold ya to the letter
We could keep ya to your word
It could be worse, could be better
Yeah ya thought ya could forget her
For what it's worth, take my word
It could be worseEverybody's guilty of that kinda thing sometimes
Maybe you'll be smarter if you get a second try
It could be worse, could be better
We could hold ya to the letter
We could keep ya to your word
It could be worse, could be better
Yeah ya thought ya could forget her
For what it's worth, take my word
It could be worse
