

Cowboys and Indians

Pat Monahan

Cowboys and Indians Cowboys and Indians
Heteros and gays
Blacks and whites
And all of their ways
They're all dancing underneath the moon Lawyers and army men
The left and the right
Preachers and communists
Oh what a sight
We're all coming home
Or will be soon
Well I'd like to thank you all
I'd like to make you all lunch by a river I know
I'd like to take your hand
I'd like to give you some peace Oh I know I'd like to show you a little bit of Happiness right now Convicts and movie stars
Prostitutes and priests
Losers and winners
Let us look to the east
Thanking the sun for another beautiful day Well I'd like to thank you all
I'd like to make you all flow like a river I know
I'd like to take your hand
I'd like to give you some peace Oh I know I'd like to show you a little bit of happiness
Right now
Shaman and children
The living and ghosts
What we need is each other the most
We could flow like a river I know by Ellba Larysa
